

The Montessori Academy Edison Lakes
Junior High

August Family Conference - PARENT FORM

Please complete this and bring it to the conference. Thank you.

1. What general goals do you have for your adolescent's personal development this year?

2. Are there any specific academic areas which you want your young adolescent to focus upon this year? Why?

3. Are there any areas in individual responsibility that you want your adolescent to focus upon this year? How do you see this happening?

homework done on time physical organization skills time management

test taking skills

self discipline and focus problem solving skills

4. Are there any areas of group responsibility that you want your adolescent to focus on this year? What are his/her challenges?

working cooperatively

leadership

listening

showing respect for others self control in groups active, positive group member communication skills

appropriate language

disagreeing respectfully openness with adults

5. Is there anything else that you would like to discuss at this conference?